Searching Standards for Federal Courts:

District Courts indexed by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemplification, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information, including fees, at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/55.

Nebraska Courts

The Supreme and Appellate Courts

The Supreme Court is the court of last resort. The Court of Appeals is generally the first court to hear appeals of judgments and orders in criminal, juvenile, civil, domestic relations and probate matters. In addition, the Court of Appeals has appellate jurisdiction over decisions originating in a number of state administrative boards and agencies. Opinions are available from the home page above.

Details on the Court Structure

District Courts have original jurisdiction in all felony cases, equity cases, domestic relations cases, and civil cases where the amount in controversy involves more than $52,000. District Courts also have appellate jurisdiction in certain matters arising out of County Courts. The District Courts have concurrent jurisdiction in misdemeanor cases, but nearly all misdemeanor cases are tried in the County Courts. As a rule of thumb, only District Courts can enter a sentence which incarcerates a defendant for more than one year.

County Courts have original jurisdiction in probate matters, violations of city or village ordinances, juvenile court matters without a separate juvenile court, adoptions, preliminary hearings in felony cases, and eminent domain proceedings. The County Courts have concurrent jurisdiction in civil matters when the amount in controversy is $52,000 or less, criminal matters classified as misdemeanors or infractions, some domestic relations matters, and paternity actions. As mentioned, nearly all misdemeanor cases are tried in the County Courts. Small Claims Court is a division of County Court, and the hearings are conducted by a county judge. Except in Douglas, Lancaster, and Sarpy Counties, Clerk Magistrates are responsible for the administrative functions of the county court offices. In Douglas, Lancaster, and Sarpy Counties, these duties are performed by judicial administrators.

Traffic cases are part of the County Courts, with the exception of Enhanced DUIs, which are part of the District Court records since these cases are felonies.

Nebraska law states that counties with 7,000 inhabitants are required to have a clerk of the District Court elected by the voters. In counties with less than 7,000 the county board and District Court judge determine whether there should be a clerk of the District Court. If a clerk does not exist, then the County Clerk is the ex officio clerk of the District Court. The District Courts have concurrent jurisdiction in misdemeanor cases, but nearly all misdemeanor cases are tried in the County Courts.

County Courts have juvenile jurisdiction in all but 3 counties. Douglas, Lancaster, and Sarpy counties have separate Juvenile Courts. Also, there is a separate Workers' Compensation Court – see www.wcc.ne.gov.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

Fees and Record Searching Tips

The State Attorney General has recommended that courts not perform record searches for the public. Therefore nearly all Nebraska courts will not respond to written search requests and also require the public to do their own in person searches. In general, the copy fee is $.25 per page and the certification fee is $1.00.

Essentially the public access terminals at the courthouse show the same information as shown online, the terminal though only displays the index for that county.

Sometimes the District and County dockets are both shown on the same terminal at the District Court location.

Online Access is Statewide

An online access subscription service is available for all Nebraska County Courts and all District Courts. Douglas County District Court was the last county added in April 2011. Case details, all party listings, payments, and actions taken for criminal, civil, probate, juvenile, and traffic are available. District Courts and County Courts must be searched separately. The system starts with a name search and resulting list gives full DOB. Both convictions and pending cases are available in the criminal search. The system essentially displays the same docket information as shown on the public terminals available at the county level.

The fee for a onetime search using a credit card is $15.00. Ongoing users may register with Nebraska.gov and have an account that also gives access to other records. There is a start-up/annual fee for $50.00. For court record access the fee is $1.00 per record or a flat rate of $300.00 per month. # Nebraska Recording Offices

- Organization: 93 counties and offices. The recording officer is the Register of Deed; however, in many counties this is a combined position with the County Clerk.
74 Nebraska counties are in the Central Time Zone (CST) and the 19 westernmost counties are in the Mountain Time Zone (MST).
- Types of Recorded Documents: Recorded documents include deeds, mortgages, assignments, releases, construction liens, tax liens (state and federal), UCC filings, plats, instruments and any writings as presented for recording.
- Recorded Document Search: Some Nebraska counties will perform real estate searches (including owner of record) when provided with the legal description of the property, most will not search Real Estate. Search fees vary from $1.00 to $5.00 per name searched. Address search requests and make checks payable to the Register of Deeds, not the County Clerk.
- Tax Lien and UCC Records: Since July 1, 1999, all federal and state tax liens are initially filed at the UCC Division at the state. The UCC Division then forwards the filing to the County Register of Deeds. Most counties will perform tax lien searches, some as part of a UCC search, and others for a separate fee. All non-real estate UCC filings are entered into a statewide database that is accessible from any county office. A declining number of counties will perform UCC searches. Use UCC-11 request. UCC statute allows for phone searching. UCC search fee is usually $4.50 per debtor name.
- Online Access: Almost all Nebraska counties are represented online in some manner, for either recorded documents or property tax and ownership data.
Twenty seven counties are affiliated with a vendor for access to Register of Deeds data - see <http://nebraskadeedsonline.us/>.

Nebraska County Locator

You will usually be able to find the city name in the City/County Cross Reference below. In that case, it is a simple matter to determine the county from the cross reference. However, only the official US Postal Service city names are included in this index. There are an additional 40,000 place names that people use in their addresses. Therefore, we have also included a ZIP/City Cross Reference immediately following the City/County Cross Reference.

If you know the ZIP Code but the city name does not appear in the City/County Cross Reference index, look up the ZIP Code in the ZIP/City Cross Reference, find the city name, then look up the city name in the City/County Cross Reference. For example, you want to know the county for an address of Menands, NY 12204. There is no "Menands" in the City/County Cross Reference. The ZIP/City Cross Reference shows that ZIP Codes 12201-12288 are for the city of Albany. Looking back in the City/County Cross Reference, Albany is in Albany County.
