Searching Standards for Federal Courts:

District Courts indexed by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER

The Supreme Court

The Supreme Court of Ohio possesses constitutional and statutory authority to exercise general powers of superintendence over the courts of the state. The primary function of the Court of Appeals is to hear appeals from the Common Pleas, Municipal and County courts. The Court of Appeals has twelve districts. The 10th District Court of Appeals in Franklin County also hears appeals from the Ohio Court of Claims.

Appellate and Supreme Court opinions may be researched from the website.

Details on the Court Structure

The Court of Common Pleas is the general jurisdiction court with separate divisions including General, Domestic Relations, Juvenile and Probate. Per the Supreme Court web page, the General Division has original jurisdiction in all criminal felony cases and in all civil cases in which the amount in controversy is more than $15,000. However, the Administrative Director's Office advises the Common Pleas can hear civil cases for $501 or more.

County and Municipal Courts handle virtually the same subject matter with some minor operational differences. Both have the authority to conduct preliminary hearings in felony cases, both have jurisdiction over traffic and non-traffic misdemeanors and, and have limited civil jurisdiction in which the amount of money in dispute does not exceed $15,000. Eviction cases are considered to be civil cases.

Mayor's Courts are not a part of the judicial branch of Ohio government and are not courts of record. A person convicted in a Mayor's Court may appeal the conviction to the Municipal or County court having jurisdiction within the municipal corporation. Ohio and Louisiana are the only two states that allow the mayors of municipal corporations to preside over a court.

The Court of Claims has original jurisdiction to hear and determine all civil actions filed against the state of Ohio and its agencies.

The intent is to provide a secure system with access by court personnel, law enforcement and other justice partner agencies.
