Searching Standards for Federal Courts:

District Courts indexed by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemplification, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information, including fees, at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/.55.

The Supreme Court and Appellate Courts

The Tennessee Supreme Court is the state's court of last resort. The Court of Appeals hears appeals in civil—or non-criminal—cases from trial courts and certain state boards and commissions. The Court of Criminal Appeals hears trial court appeals in felony and misdemeanor cases, as well as post-conviction petitions.

Details on the Court Structure

Circuit Courts hear civil and criminal cases and appeals of decisions from City, Juvenile, Municipal, and General Sessions Courts. Circuit Courts jurisdiction often overlaps with the Chancery Courts. The Probate Court, generally a Division of the Circuit Court, has jurisdiction over probate of will and administration of estates. Note that Shelby County has a separate Probate Court.

Criminal cases are tried in Circuit Court except in districts with separate Criminal Courts. These courts were established by the General Assembly in counties with heavy caseloads. Criminal Courts exist in 13 of the 31 districts and hear felony cases, plus misdemeanor appeals from the lower courts.

Chancery Courts handle a variety of issues including lawsuits, contract disputes, application for injunctions and name changes. A number of matters, such as divorces, adoptions, and workers' compensation, can be heard in either Chancery or Circuit court.

General Sessions Court jurisdiction varies from county to county based on state laws and private acts. But every county is served by this court of limited jurisdiction. Civil jurisdiction is restricted to specific monetary limits and types of actions. Criminal jurisdiction is limited to preliminary hearings in felony cases and to most misdemeanor cases. Combining of Circuit Court and General Sessions Courts in smaller population counties often occurs.

Each Juvenile & Family Court, with the exception of Bristol and Johnson City, is county-based and administered with at least one juvenile court located in each of the state's 95 counties. There are 98 courts, but 17 are designated "Private Act" Juvenile Courts while the remaining 81 are General Sessions Courts with juvenile jurisdiction.

The Probate Court has jurisdiction over probate of will and administration of estates. The court can be a Division of the Circuit Court or the Chancery Court, depending on the county. Note that Shelby County has a separate Probate Court.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

Fees and Record Searching Tips

Fees vary widely, for example the fee for a criminal name search will vary from $5.00 to $25.00, or no fee at all. Over two-thirds of the general jurisdiction courts offer public access terminals to view docket indices. Generally the index shows all cases, but case files need to be pulled to view.

Online Access is Limited

Only a half a dozen counties offer online access to court records. There is no statewide access system other than the access to Supreme and Appellate Court data (www.tncourts.gov/media/case-resources).

Tennessee Recording Offices

Organization:

95 counties, 96 recording offices. The recording officer is the Register of Deeds. Sullivan County has two recording offices. 66 western Tennessee counties including the state capital are in the Central Time Zone (CST) and the remaining 29 eastern counties are in the Eastern Time Zone (EST).

Types of Documents Recorded:

The County Register's office records deeds, mortgages and various other documents including plats and restrictions of subdivisions, powers of attorney, military discharges, release of mortgages, state tax liens, federal tax liens and various miscellaneous liens and documents.

Searching Real Estate Records:

Counties will not perform real estate searches. A real estate copy is usually $1.00 per page; copy fees can be lower. Certification fee is generally $1.00 per page. Tax records are kept at the Assessor's Office.

Searching UCC Records:

Financing statements are filed at the state level except for real estate related collateral which are filed with the Register of Deeds. Prior to July, 2001, consumer goods and farm collateral were also filed at the Register of Deeds and these older records can be searched there. Most recording offices will not perform UCC searches; if they do, use search request form UCC-11. UCC search fee is usually $12-15; the UCC copy fee is $1.00 per page.

Searching Tax Lien Records:

All federal and state tax liens are filed with the county Register of Deeds. A number of counties will not perform tax lien searches by name; you must hire a local researcher.

Online Access:

Land records for a county are most-likely on one or more private vendor search sites; assessments on the statewide system, free.

Online access to a number of county property and deeds indexes and images is available via a private company at www.titlesearcher.com. Tennessee County Locator

You will usually be able to find the city name in the City/County Cross Reference below. However, only the official US Postal Service city names are included in this index. There are an additional 40,000 place names that people use in their addresses. Therefore, we have also included a ZIP/City Cross Reference immediately following the City/County Cross Reference.

If you know the ZIP Code but the city name does not appear in the City/County Cross Reference index, look up the ZIP Code in the ZIP/City Cross Reference, find the city name, then look up the city name in the City/County Cross Reference. For example, you want to know the county for an address of Menands, NY 12204. There is no "Menands" in the City/County Cross Reference.
